

Classes in Art and Craft July 15-19, 2013

Bring home a unique, personal keepsake or gift from your Week! No special experience is typically required for many of these classes. Materials fees will apply and are payable first class meeting. Older teens may be welcome; check with instructors prior to registration. Classes meet in and around Weldon House, except for Painting. Class times may vary slightly from the instrumental class schedules, so see your instructor for details.

"Painting from Life"- Vincent Crotty- Capturing local landscapes and Arts Week action- meeting at JP Farrell's, times and other locations to be determined.

Ancient Irish Style Jewelry Casting – Iris Nevins- simple clay casting method, using sterling silver. Create your own designs, or use previously carved knotwork models to produce a high quality piece. Shop fee $25

"Kitchen Table Celtic Jewelry" Bead and wire work that can be done by anyone, with supplies readily available in A.C. Moore or Michaels Crafts. No heating or soldering required at all. Teens welcome!

Celtic Relief Carving in Limestone- Laura Travis- useful, direct technique, great for garden art-no drawing skills needed, Age 15 up welcome! Meeting mornings only on the porch.

Irish Weaving Craft: Brigid Crosses Laura Travis. Easy – and very traditional- Irish craft of weaving a Brigid Cross in this fun and practical class. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons on the porch. Drop-in, one-afternoon class will yield two Brigid Crosses- one to give and one to keep. Reserve your preferred afternoon; no advance registration needed, just text 401-484-0481 or stop by the porch at Weldon House $15 for one afternoon class includes CIAW class tuition and materials fee.

See the Silent Auction up at the Field, a special fundraiser for Catskills Irish Arts Week. . Work from these artists is offered for sale. Donations of Art and Craft by members of this faculty benefit the Arts Week at the Auction Sale at the same booth.